Optional Activities (Please register one day prior)

MELUKAT or WATER PURIFICATION

The Balinese water purification ritual is called Melukat. It is a sacred Hindu ceremony that uses holy water (tirta) to cleanse the body, mind, and spirit of negative energy and restore inner balance. The ritual has been practiced in Bali for generations and remains an important part of Balinese Hindu culture. A typical Melukat ceremony includes: Prayer and offerings (canang sari or pejati), Blessings from a Balinese priest (pemangku or pedanda), Washing under holy water fountains or bathing in a sacred spring, A final prayer and receiving holy water and blessed rice.
